DISCOUNTS.

By Escritura.

For years past we have heard objections raised to the fifty per cent discount, but still we find dealers offering not only fifty but even seventy five per cent discount, of course any one with the least knowledge of philately is aware that these discounts are only obtainable on the cheaper and commoner stamps and are misleading to a large extent.

Stamp dealers like all business men secure good bargains which they in a business way throw out as catchers to their customers. If certain stamps can be sold and they are sold by all dealers at a discount of fifty per cent off catalogue price, then that stamp in reality is not worth the figure at which it is catalogued. Again we find that stamps that catalogue one dollar or over cannot be bought at wholesale at fifty per cent discount, therefore is it reasonable to expect dealers to sell single copies with this discount, and so it is the higher the price of the stamp the less likelihood of it being sold below catalogue.

These discounts are misleading both to the buyer and exchanger alike, for how often do exchangers receive a letter after this style? "I am sending one hundred stamps, they catalogue one or two dollars (as the case may be), and am taking so and so's catalogue as a basis, you will please send me in exchange such and such a stamp that catalogues that value.

Now as stamps that catalogue one cent each, can be bought at from ten to twenty-five cents per hundred, how can a party send a stamp in exchange that cannot be bought wholesale at fifty per cent off; yet this is the way nine out of ten exchangers write. Whereas if each and every stamp was catalogued at its cash value it would be easy for the receiver to comply with the wish of the sender.

These discounts leave a way open for the unscrupulous dealer to take undue advantage of the young beginner, who as his knowldege of stamps increases finds to his sorrow that even at fifty per cent discount some of his stamps have cost him too dear then becomes disheartened he disposes of his collection at considerable loss, and is through with philately.

OURSELVES.

We are indeed thankful to our many friends who have so kindly come forward to our help and support, but like "Oliver Twist" we shall ask for "more", more suggestions, more direct information from stamp issuing countries, more interesting articles on our hobbies, and above all more subscriptions and advertising matter, for these are the backbone of our paper.

We are sparing no time, energy, or expense, to make the Dominion Philatelist what we claim for it, "Canada's best philatelic paper. When we undertook to publish the D. P. the paper had little commercial value, to day we are giving nine pages of advertisements, nor can we afford to stop at this, but ask the moral and financial support of all interested in philately and other hobbies.

The stamp season is now commencing and those who do the advertising will get the benefit; we, ourselves have done considerable of late and are now getting the reward, each mail brings us some encouragement.

WHAT!

In looking over the "Perforator we were surprised to find so many Canadians listed for not making returns for stamps obtained on approval; we shall be pleased to receive any information regarding this kind of stamp sharks. Ed.

We would call your attention to the advertisement of J. C, Mc Queen, Mount Vernon, N. Y. their View Cards are exceptionally well finished, the views being clear and distinct, and are interesting and instructive.

Secretary's Report.

I regret that owing to various reasons it becomes necessary to call for another nomination of officers; in our last call only three officers received the required support, the rest being distributed amongst the members, I trust that now we are into the stamp season more interest will be taken in the different departments.

Change of Address.

E. A. Corker, from 648 Markham Street, to 828 Bathurst Street Toronto.

W. M. Lester, from 2031 Center St. to 1801 Allston Way, Berkely, Calif.

Sales Department,

I take pleasure in announcing that the Rev. A. J, Young, Manitowaning, Ont. as our Sales Superintendent, if you wish to be placed on circuit or have books to put in, kindly notify him, this only refers to paid up members.

Auction Departmemt.

This department is in good working order, a number of sales being made at the last auction, members having lots they wish to place in department will kindly forward same as soon as possible.

Dues.

There are still a few members who have neglected to pay their dues, will they kindly remit so as to receive full benefits.

C. J. Thomas.
Secretary.

SUGGESTIONS.

Nomination and election of officers of the Dominion Philatelic Association comes at the time when all collectors are interested in their stamps, we therefore look to them to show an interest in the Society. The paid up members are men of good standing. men of which any association might be proud, the difficulty being that they are not sufficiently acquainted with each other, it was this that made it necessary to call for another nomination.

Under these circumstances we do not think it out of place to make a few suggestions as to the men most suitable for the various offices, viz. -

President, Rev, W. W, Bolton, Victotia, B. C.

Canadian Vice President, D. P. Duggan, Toronto. W. G. L. Paxton, Quebec,

U. S. Vice President, T. W. Robinson, Denison, Texas,

Counterfeit Detector, - - - W M, Lester, Berkley, California. G. A. Lowe, Toronto.

Sale Superintendent, - - A. J. Young, Manitowaning, Ontario.

Librarian, - - - W. E. Brown. Toronto,

Trustees, E. Marks, E. A. Corker, W. A. Petrie, G. A, Lowe, of Toronto. Thos. S. Fucher, Victoria. A .M .Muirhead, Halifax.

There are other offices requiring good men, and we trust that they will come forward and offer their services; let us all do our duty, let the coming season break the record for work.

COINS.

A penny is estimated to change hands about 125,000 times in the course of its life.

■ ■ ■

A silver penny of Henry III., struck by Nicholas, Bishop of London, has been dug up at Tressingfield.

Knife money, belonged to the state of Ts'i, one of the most powerful of the early sub-divisions of the Chinese Empire, which came into power B. C, 1122, and was subdued by the rival state of Ts'in B. C. 234.

The symbol of the cross was associated with the earliest coins in Christendom, and to-day the crusade is one of the coins of Spain. A cross was cut on the Anglo-Saxon and Norman money that it might be readily broken into halves and quarters for giving change, and when cut coins were abolished, money continued to be marked on the one side with the cross, like our modern florin. In this way it became common in the sixteenth century to say, "He hasn't a cross." Shakespeare frequently uses it in this sense, and Nassinger played on the double meaning of the word, "The devil sleeps in my pocket. I have no cross to drive him from it."—London Express.

At Tobermory Bay, Scotland, have been found gold and silver coins, these are relics from the Armada, two years ago fifty silver coins were brought up by divers, and now comes report that five gold coins have been secured, they are of the "pieces of eight" and doubloon denomination, and were in an excellent state of preservation.

Experts think these are only specimens from the treasure chest lying deep in the clay and by continuing the work of thorough pumping, (an exceedingly slow process,) hope to find the chest.

THE CAMERA.

The amount of pleasure and profit that can be derived from a camera, carefully operated, cannot be much over estimated, but like all other hobbies there is lots to learn, many things required, and above all a large amount of patience necessary.

On taking up amature photography it is best to at least secure a good camera, of course the better the camera the better the work produced, small cheap ones are useless.

Now-a-days no touring or outing party is complete without a camera and views, snap-shots of places, natives, pet animals, etc. etc. can be exchanged to advantage with friends in all countries.

This hobby is not confined to any one season, many winter scenes are most beautiful.
